

Disney
PIRATES of the CARIBBEAN

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES

Talkin' Like A Pirate Arrr Ye?

Ahoy, Matey! Git yer Pirate-Speak ship-shape with these fine sea-farin' phrases!

A FEW 'PIRATEY' GUIDELINES:

1. Ye best livin'-up the festivities smartly! Meaning: Use your pirate lingo to describe mundane events or activities in a spirited 'piratey' manner.
2. Use yer pirate-speak midst havenous pirate matters! Meaning: Make certain all circumstances are appropriate when speaking 'pirate' -- a saucy wench' may not be the most appropriate way to address your boss.
3. Revel in yer sweet-trade merriment, matey! Meaning: Have fun with your pirate-speak!

Avast ye, what be yer sort? Choose what type of pirate you are.

- |   |   |   |
|---|---|---|
| <input type="radio"/> ROGUEA bit of a devilish sort           | <input type="radio"/> MILQUETOASTA meek and timid sort    | <input type="radio"/> BANGSTERLawless and wild                |
| <input type="radio"/> MAIDENGentle, tender, somewhat helpless | <input type="radio"/> WENCHA saucy, fun, independent lass | <input type="radio"/> VIRAGOStrong, outspoken, natural leader |

What be yer best fittin' 'piratey' name? Usually a colorful combination of unique descriptive adjective(s) or noun(s) followed by a given name. Some examples:

- Barnacle Bob    Southwind Sue    Big One-Eyed Bart    Harsh Lip Mary    Spry Todd    Wily Winona

Make your pirate name known by all with this handy pirate identity card:

Ahoy!
Me 'Piratey' Name be:

(Hello! My name is:)

On Digital September 19 and on Blu-ray™ October 3

Disney PIRATES of the CARIBBEAN

DEAD MEN TELL NO TALES

PIRATE GLOSSARY

CURRENCY:

Blunt – slang for money or coin

Cob or Cob Dollars – gold doubloons

Doubloon - Spanish or Aztec Gold

Pieces of Eight – Silver Spanish coin

Tin – slang for money or coin

FOODS:

Bunny Grub - vegetables

Burgoo – a vile mash of boiled oatmeal with salt, sugar and butter

Cackle-Fruit – eggs

Dogsbody – sea biscuit soaked in water and sugar

Grog - Rum diluted w/ water

Grub - Food

Hardtack - a hard flour & water biscuit

Loblolly – Porridge or gruel

Poor John – salted and dried fish

Rum – a preferred drink of pirates

Salmagundi – a particularly spicy soup

Spirits – hearty beverages

Tooth Rot – sugar

FRIENDS:

Bucko / Mate / Matey / Me Hearties

INSULTS:

Addled - crazy

Bilge Rat

Bilge-sucking – an uncomplimentary adjective

Dog

Land-lubber – land-lover

Lubber – a clumsy man

Poxy, poxed – to be diseased

Scurvy Dog

Shark Bait - lazy

Swab – disrespectful term for a seaman

TREASURE:

Booty / Loot / Swag

Wracking trade –diving for sunken treasure

EXPRESSIONS:

“Batten down the hatches” – we’re expecting adverse conditions!

“Bum-squabbled” – to be baffled confused or puzzled

“By and large” – for the most part

“Cracking a bottle” – ‘Let’s open a bottle of wine or rum’

“Dead as bilge water” – rotting dead

“Devil to pay” – seeing no clear way out of a situation

“Eye of the wind” – the direction in which the wind is coming from

“Feeling blue” – a ship without a captain flew a blue flag when returning to port

“Gone by the board” – anything lost over the side of a ship

“Harp up in a clinch and no knife to cut the seizing’s” – in a difficult situation

“I have the collywobblers” – to be afraid

“I’ll see you measured for chains” – a particularly nasty threat feared by pirates

“In due course” – something will happen when it should happen

“Keep a weather eye open” – keep an eye on where the trouble might come from

“Rattle the bones” – to shake the dice or gambling with cards & dice

“Shake a cloth in the wind” – to be slightly tipsy or drunk

“Shiver me timbers” – to be very surprised

“Sink Me!” – to be very surprised

“Splice the mainbrace” – to have several drinks

“Stay the Course” – a nautical term to not vary from the intended destination

“Sweet Trade” – a pirate’s profession

“Tell it to the parrot” – to tell everyone, spreading gossip

“Three Sheets To The Wind” – to be drunk

“Yo Ho Ho!” – a very piratey thing to say on any occasion

EXCLAMATIONS:

Blimey – to be surprised

Buoyed up – to be uplifted

Clear the deck – prepare for battle

Land Ahoy – to see land

Me thinks – I believe

Sink me – to be surprised

Aye or Aye, aye, sir! ...or, Arr – yes

PUNISHMENTS:

Bite the Bullet – to stop the screaming from any punishment

Clap in irons – confined to iron manacles

Davy Jones’ Locker – a watery grave

Feed the Fish – being thrown into the sea dead or alive

Flogging – a short whip with a cat-o’-nine-tails attached at the end.

Gallows Dance – the dangling feet of a hanged man

Keelhaul – tying wrists & ankles, tossing overboard then dragging under the keel of the ship

Kiss the Gunner’s Daughter – to be bent over a ship’s guns and flogged

Kiss the Wooden Lady – to be tied up w/ arms ‘round the mast.

Maroon – abandoning an offender on a remote island

Rope’s End – referencing a hanging – to meet the rope’s end

Sweating – being forced to run around the ship until you dropped while crew utilized various sharp objects ‘encouraging’ you to continue

Walking the Plank – to walk until you drop off the plank

On Digital September 19 and on Blu-ray™ October 3