

Disabilities Awareness

Merit Badge Workbook

This workbook can help you but you still need to read the merit badge pamphlet.

This Workbook can help you organize your thoughts as you prepare to meet with your merit badge counselor.

You still must satisfy your counselor that you can demonstrate each skill and have learned the information.

You should use the work space provided for each requirement to keep track of which requirements have been completed, and to make notes for discussing the item with your counselor, not for providing full and complete answers.

If a requirement says that you must take an action using words such as "discuss", "show", "tell", "explain", "demonstrate", "identify", etc, that is what you must do.

Merit Badge Counselors may not require the use of this or any similar workbooks.

No one may add or subtract from the official requirements found in Boy Scout Requirements (Pub. 33216 – SKU 637685).

The requirements were last issued or revised in 2017 • This workbook was updated in May 2017.

3. Do TWO of the following:

- a. Talk with a Scout who has a disability and learn about his experiences taking part in Scouting activities and earning different merit badges.

Discuss what you have learned with your counselor.

- b. Talk with an individual who has a disability and learn about this person's experiences and the activities in which this person likes to participate.

Discuss what you have learned with your counselor.

- c. Learn how people with disabilities take part in a particular adaptive sport or recreational activity. Discuss what you have learned with your counselor.

- d. Learn about independent living aids such as service animals, canes, and augmentative communication devices such as captioned telephones and videophones.

Discuss with your counselor how people use such aids.

- d. Plan or participate in an activity that helps others understand what a person with a visible or invisible disability experiences. Discuss what you have learned with your counselor..

4. Do EITHER option A or option B:

- Option A. Visit TWO of the following locations and take notes about the accessibility to people with disabilities. In your notes, give examples of five things that could be done to improve upon the site and five things about the site that make it friendly to people with disabilities. Discuss your observations with your counselor.
- Option B. Visit TWO of the following locations and take notes while observing features and methods that are used to accommodate people with invisible disabilities. While there, ask staff members to explain any accommodation features that may not be obvious. Note anything you think could be done to better accommodate people who have invisible disabilities. Discuss your observations with your counselor.

a. Your school

b. Your place of worship

c. A Scouting event or campsite

d. A public exhibit or attraction (such as a theater, museum, or park)

5. Explain what advocacy is.

Do ONE of the following advocacy activities:

- a. Present a counselor approved disabilities awareness program to a Cub Scout pack or other group. During your presentation, explain and use person first language.
- b. Find out about disability awareness education programs in your school or school system, or contact a disability advocacy agency. Volunteer with a program or agency for eight hours.
- c. Using resources such as disability advocacy agencies, government agencies, the Internet (with your parent's permission), and news magazines, learn about myths and misconceptions that influence the general public's understanding of people with disabilities. List 10 myths and misconceptions about people with disabilities and learn the facts about each myth. Share your list with your counselor, then use it to make a presentation to a Cub Scout pack or other group.

6. Make a commitment to your merit badge counselor describing what you will do to show a positive attitude about people with disabilities and to encourage positive attitudes among others.

Discuss how your awareness has changed as a result of what you have learned.

7. Name five professions that provide services to people with disabilities.

2.
3.
4.
5.

Pick one that interests you and find out the education, training, and experience required for this profession.
